Dear Parents and Carers

Re: GCSE English Literature: Yr 10 recommended revision material:

As I am sure you are aware, any extra assistance in preparation for the rigours of the two English Literature GCSE exams is both highly beneficial and valuable for students. We have found it to be extremely useful if students possess their own copies of the texts and study/revision guides and work books, which they can use in class but also for homelearning tasks and private research during their own time. If they have their own copy of the text being studied, they can annotate this and highlight key quotations which is hugely beneficial when it comes to revise next year.

The 4 texts that we will be studying in year 10 for the GCSE exam are:

- Macbeth by Shakespeare ISBN: 978-1-107-61549-6
- The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde by Robert Louis Stephenson (set 1, 2 and 3) ISBN: 978-0-486-26688-6 or A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens (set 4 and 5) ISBN: 978-1-407143-64-4
- An Inspector Calls by J.B. Priestley ISBN: 978-0-435232-82-5
- Poetry Anthology Power and Conflict

As a department, we can get a discount on the CGP text guides and work books if we buy directly from CGP at a price of £2.75 per text guide and £2.75 per work book. The RRP price is £5.95 so that would be a big saving of £3.20 per item.

Please fill out the request form below if you would like to take advantage of this discount. Please return these by Friday 2nd November. Alternatively, you can make your own purchases from eBay, Amazon or any other on-line store or high street book shop. We cannot get any additional discount for the texts themselves so we recommend that you seek the best price for these yourselves.

Many thanks for your continued support.

Kind Regards,

Mrs P. Suttle
