

The Ongar Academy

Deputy Headteacher (Pastoral) L 14-18 Required April 2019

The Ongar Academy has, a genuine commitment to the welfare and development of staff and high expectations of student behaviour. The school was inspected in 2018 and was described as being good overall with many outstanding features.

Are you the talented individual we are looking for who shares our passion for education and wants to make a real difference in the wider community? The Ongar Academy is looking for a Deputy Headteacher who knows what outstanding provision and academic progress looks like within our small community setting and beyond. We want a collaborator, who not only will work closely with the local stakeholders, but has a genuine desire to work openly and collectively.

With a clear strategic vision, you will navigate the changing educational landscape in partnership with the CEO, Executive Headteacher, the Local Governing Body and the Trustees. We are building leadership structures for the future, and this is a fantastic opportunity for an experienced Deputy Headteacher or for an existing Assistant Headteacher looking to work collaboratively in a forward-thinking, community-based trust.

We encourage you to contact our CEO, Mark Farmer or Headteacher, Allan Osborne for further information and/or to arrange a visit to the school on staffaha@theongaracademy.org

Please enclose a letter to support your application that highlights your suitability and preparation for this position and your personal educational philosophy and vision.
